Database of the Month

This month's featured database is Ancestry.com. Find out who and where you came from. Create an account, make a family tree, and find long-lost family members. All free!

*This database can only be used in the library ****

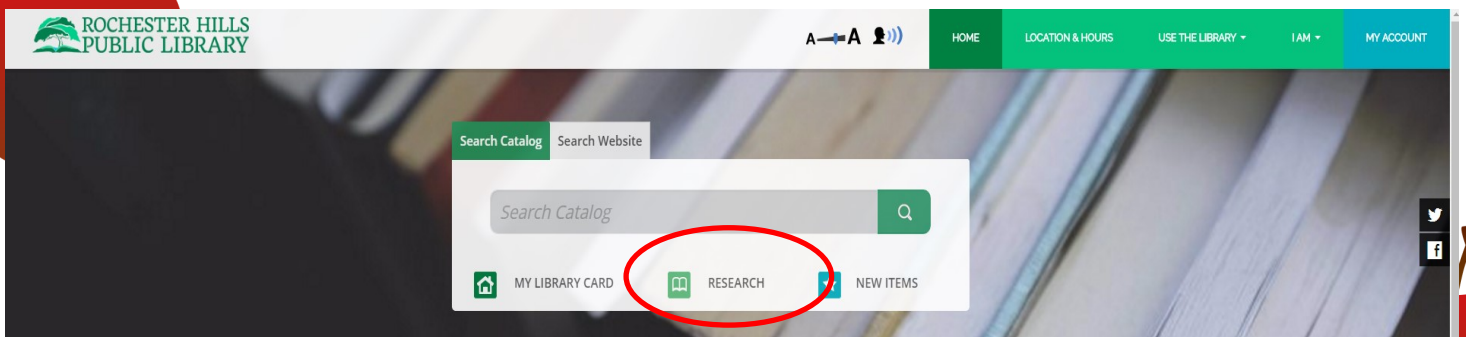

The screenshot shows the Ancestry.com website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for HOME, SEARCH, MESSAGE BOARDS, LEARNING CENTER, CHARTS AND FORMS, and NEW COLLECTIONS. Below the navigation bar, there is a purple banner that says "Would you like to improve your Ancestry experience? Give us your feedback." The main content area features a large image of a group of people with the text "Searching for that right moment" and "Start searching billions of records and discover your family's story." A green button labeled "BEGIN SEARCHING" is visible. On the right side, there is a section titled "Receive Records at Home" with a sub-section "Send Your Find Home!" which includes a form for entering an email address and a "Send document" button. Below this, there is a "Five Minute Find: Sending Documents Home From the Library" section with a "View Video" link.

All subscription databases are offered to you free of charge! We pick up the bill!

All are scholarly sourced (meaning they are appropriate for school projects) and are simply digital copies of print material. Many include primary resources and information you can't find for free anywhere else.

Most can be accessed at home using your RHPL card - especially helpful for those "last minute" book reports and projects!

Millions of articles, reference books, encyclopedia entries, and journals right at your fingertips! Just go to rhpl.org and click on "Research."

The header includes the library's name and logo, and navigation links for HOME, LOCATION & HOURS, USE THE LIBRARY, I AM, and MY ACCOUNT. Below the header, there is a search bar with "Search Catalog" and "Search Website" tabs. A search input field is visible with a magnifying glass icon. At the bottom of the page, there is a navigation bar with icons and labels for MY LIBRARY CARD, RESEARCH (circled in red), and NEW ITEMS. Social media icons for Twitter and Facebook are also present in the bottom right corner.
