

2018-18 THE KILT and Kilt Online

Donations and Subscriptions

Thank you for your interest in Rochester Adams High School’s student news magazine. The Kilt, and KiltOnline are self-funded organizations that rely solely on subscriptions, advertising, and donations to pay printing and equipment costs. Thank you for supporting student journalists and the work they do on our school campus.

Gold Level:

Business $200

In addition to receiving all issues of our paper, donors will also receive a 1/8 ad in any issue of your choice, one month of advertising on our website (or a second 1/8 page ad if website space is full), a link to your business placed on our website for the entire school year, and a listing in the donors section of every paper.*

Blue Level $100

White Level $75

Black Level $50

Blue, white, and black level donors will be mailed all issues of our paper as well as have their name listed in the donors section of every paper.*

*In the event that we do not raise enough money to provide a print issue, the commitment to providing your name and/or business on our website remains.

In addition to your payment online, please complete the form below and bring it to registration OR mail it to:
