

West Middle School Book Order For All Language Arts Classes

West Middle School is pleased to host New York Times bestselling author, Alan Gratz, during the week of April 29th, 2019. Mr. Gratz has been invited to the Rochester community by the Authors In April organization. This is made possible through the financial assistance of the West PTSA. Students will have the opportunity to read a novel and participate in a discussion with Mr. Gratz.

In preparation for his visit, your student will be reading the book listed below for their Language Arts class. The book will be used for activities and discussion in the classroom, which will enhance the student experience. Students are asked to obtain their own copy. Books are on sale now. Your student will receive his/her book in language arts prior to the AIA unit.

Grade 6: *The Brooklyn Nine

From baseball's beginnings in old New York through the Civil War, the birth of professional baseball, the women's league of the 40s, the Cold War, and into the 2000s, The Brooklyn Nine follows nine generations of kids in one family as they experience the ups and downs of baseball and American history.

320 pages

Grade 7: *Projekt 1065

World War II is raging. Michael O'Shaunessey, the son of the Irish ambassador to Nazi Germany, lives in war-torn Berlin with his parents. Like the other boys at his school, Michael is a member of the Hitler Youth. But Michael has a secret: He and his parents are spies.

Grade 8 (and Comp & Lit. all grades – Poirer/Craig): *Code of Honor

Kamran Smith has it all. He's the star of the football team, dates the most popular girl at school, and can't wait to go to West Point like his big brother, Darius. Although Kamran's mother is from Iran, Kamran has always felt 100% American. Accepted.

Then Kamran's older brother goes online claiming credit for a terrorist attack, and everything implodes.
