Multiply	JoJo Dosch, Julie Schmidt, Lisa Standal	sdosch@rochester.k12.mi.us , jschmidt@rochester.k12.mi.us , lstandal@rochester.k12.mi.us	Thursdays, beginning Sept. 28th during grade level lunches	Multiply is a student led Bible study that meets during Hart lunches. Meetings include some social time, discussion of a Bible verse or topic, and prayer.
Project Lit Community	Shavonne Jacobson	sjacobson@rochester.k12.mi.us	Quarterly	Project Lit at Hart Middle School provides opportunities for readers to read, celebrate, and discuss culturally relevant books. Over 500 chapters in 40 states select shared novels to read and discuss in their community. Project Lit will empower students as readers and leaders, engage and inspire members to promote reading, develop authentic reading identities, improve our literacy attitudes and outcomes, one book and one conversation at a time, and engage in service and project-based learning centered around literacy.
Ski & Snowboard	Kristin Baljet	hartskiandsnowboardclub@gmail.com	Every Thursday afternoon January - February at Pine Knob.	This is a club where the whole family can get involved, as we offer student passes for 2nd - 8th grades and parent passes. Please see all the information on the Hart website under clubs and activities. Club members can go throughout the ski season and get a discounted rate after the club is done in February.
